WHEREAS it hath been represented to Us, that a great Number of Persons, in Consequence of Advertisements or Hand Bills inciting them thereto, did, on Friday last the Second of this Instant June, assemble in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner in Saint George's Fields, in the County of Surry, from whence they proceeded in several Bodies to Palace-Yard, Westminster, surrounded both Houses of Parliament, and possessed themselves of the Avenues to the same, (the said Houses of Parliament being then sitting) where they continued in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner, committing great Outrages and Violence against several of Our Subjects, and feloniously taking Money from them; after which, in the Evening of the same Day, they insulted and attacked the Houses of some of the Publick Ministers of Foreign Princes and States, residing at Our Court, and broke into, spoiled, and set Fire to Chapels, which in every civilized Country are allowed to such Publick Ministers for the free Exercise of the Religion of their Country, to the great Scandal and Offence of all truly pious and good Protestants; We therefore, in order that the Reproach of so frantick and atrocious an Outrage against the Precepts of Religion, as well as the Obligations of all Laws, may not remain a Disgrace to Our Kingdom, but may be confined to the Authors, Abettors, and Perpetrators of the said Outrage, and that they may be brought to speedy and condign Punishment: and that such dangerous and wicked Practices may hereafter be prevented, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish and declare Our Resolution to put the Laws in Force against such Offences: And We do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting to the utmost of their Power in suppressing such illegal and tumultuous Assemblies, and in detecting, apprehending, and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in assembling or instigating the same, and guilty of any of the Violences above mentioned: And for the better Detection of the Persons who were concerned in the Outrages committed at the Houses of the said Publick Ministers, We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons who, directly or indirectly, were concerned in pulling down, or beginning to pull down, or in setting Fire to the Chapel of any Publick Minister, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have and receive, as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and also Our Gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same, except the Person who first broke into, or began to pull down or set Fire to the said Chapels. And the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer, are hereby required to make Payment of the said Rewards accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Fifth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS a great Number of disorderly Persons have assembled themselves together in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner, and have been guilty of many Acts of Treason and Rebellion, having made an Assault on the Gaol of Newgate, set loose the Prisoners confined therein, and set Fire to and destroyed the said Prison: And whereas Houses are now pulling down in several Parts of Our Cities of London and Westminster, and Liberties thereof, and Fires kindled for consuming the Materials and Furniture of the same, whereby it is become absolutely necessary to use the most effectual Means to quiet such Disturbances, to preserve the Lives and Properties of Individuals, and to restore the Peace of the Country: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby strictly charging and exhorting all Our loving Subjects to preserve the Peace, and to keep themselves, their Servants and Apprentices, quietly within their respective Dwellings, to the End that all well-disposed Persons may avoid those Mischiefs which the Continuance of such riotous Proceedings may bring upon the Guilty: And as it is necessary, from the Circumstances before mentioned, to employ the Military Force, with which We are by Law entrusted, for the immediate Suppression of such Rebellious and Traiterous Attempts, now making against the Peace and Dignity of Our Crown, and the Safety of the Lives and Properties of Our Subjects, We have therefore issued the most direct and effectual Orders to all Our Officers, by an immediate Exertion of their utmost Force, to repress the same; of which all Persons are to take Notice.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS a great Number of disorderly Persons have for several Days past assembled themselves together, in a Riotous and Tumultuous Manner, and have been guilty of many Acts of Treason, Rebellion, and Felony, having formed Designs to break open and destroy the Gaols and Prisons, and to set loose the Prisoners confined therein, and having actually broke into and set on Fire the Gaol of Newgate, the King's Bench Prison, and the Prison of the Fleet, and released the Prisoners, and made Attempts on other Gaols and Prisons in and about this Metropolis; and having set Fire to and pulled down the Dwelling-houses of divers of Our peaceable Subjects, and also set Fire to, burnt and destroyed the Materials thereof, and the Furniture and other Effects found therein; and also taken Money from divers of Our Subjects: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish and declare Our Resolution, That the Authors, Abettors, and Perpetrators of the said Offences be prosecuted as expeditiously as may be, according to the due Course of Law; and we do hereby enjoin and require all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, and all other Our loving Subjects, to be aiding and assisting to the utmost of their Power, in detecting, apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Offenders. And We are graciously pleased to promise, that if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons who are guilty of any of the said Offences, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted for the same, such Discoverer shall have and receive, as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, and also Our Gracious Pardon for the said Offence, in Case the Person making such Discovery shall himself be liable to be prosecuted for the same; and the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment accordingly of the said Rewards.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Ninth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.
GOD Save the KING.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
GEORGE R.

WHEREAS Information has been received, that the late Riots and Tumults in and about this Metropolis were encouraged and abetted by Money, or other Rewards, given, or promised to be given, to the Persons concerned therein; and also Bells, Flags, and other Signals and Devices, were used during the said Riots and Tumults, to direct the Rioters in their Criminal Acts and Proceedings, and to give Notice of Attempts or Preparations to suppress, resist, or interrupt the same: We therefore, taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of any of the Criminal Acts above mentioned, are graciously pleased to promise, That if any Person shall discover any other Person or Persons, who by themselves, or their Agents, gave or offered, or promised to give, any Money, or other Reward, to any Person or Persons, to engage or continue in the said Riots or Tumults, or to do or assist in any of the Criminal Acts committed during the Continuance of the said Riots and Tumults, or who made use of any Bells, Flags, or other Signals or Devices, to direct the Rioters in any of their Criminal Acts and Proceedings, or to give Notice of Attempts or Preparations to suppress, resist, or interrupt the same, so as that the Person or Persons discovered may be prosecuted, such Discoverer shall have and receive as a Reward, upon Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS; and the Commissioners for executing the Office of Treasurer of Our Exchequer are hereby required to make Payment thereof accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-first Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and eighty, in the Twentieth Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of June, 1780,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776: And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August, 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 30th Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer, His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this instant June to the 30th Day of September next, inclusive — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Faulkner,

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st Day of June, 1780,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint Thomas Babington, of Temple, Esquire, to be Sheriff of the County of Leicester, in the Room of Sir Thomas Cave, of Stanford, Baronet, deceased.

Westminster, June 23.

THIS Day, the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons, acquainting them that the Lords, authorized by Virtue of His Majesty's Commission, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great-Britain, the Lord President of the Council, and several other Lords therein mentioned, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to permit Goods, the Produce or Manufacture of certain Places within the Levant or Mediterranean Seas, to be imported into Great Britain or Ireland in British or Foreign Vessels, from any Place whatsoever, and for laying a Duty on Cotton and Cotton Wool imported into this Kingdom, in Foreign Ships or Vessels, for a limited Time.

An Act to indemnify such Persons as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments; and to indemnify Justices of the Peace, or others, who have omitted to register or deliver in their Qualifications within the Time limited by Law, and for giving further Time for those Purposes; and to indemnify Members and Officers in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whose Admissions have been omitted to be stamped according to Law, or, having been stamped, have been lost or mislaid, and for allowing them Time to provide Admissions duly stamped; and to give further Time to such Persons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Inventures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors.

An Act to allow the Exportation of Provisions, Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, from Great Britain, to certain Towns, Ports, or Places, in North America, which are or may be under the Protection of His Majesty's Arms, and from such Towns, Ports, or Places, to Great Britain, and other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions.

An Act for exempting the City of Winchester, the County of Southampton, the Town of Shrewsbury, and the County of Salop, out of the Provisions of an Act, made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the Quartering of Soldiers during the Time of the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, so far as the same relates to the Removal of Troops during the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, for a limited Time.

And to One Private Bill.

St. James's, June 24.

The following Address of the Alderman, Deputy, Common Council, and Inhabitants of the Ward of Bridge Within, having been Yesterday delivered to The Lord Viscount Stormont, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Mr. Alderman Wooldridge, accompanied by James Sanderson, Joseph Hardcastle, James Davidson, Joseph Brown, Arthur Scaife, Francis Garratt, and William Anderson, Esquires, has been presented to His Majesty by his Lordship: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Alderman, Deputy, Common Council, and Inhabitants, of the Ward of Bridge Within, which was unanimously resolved, at a Wardmote holden at Fishmongers Hall the Twenty-first Day of June, 1780, before the Worshipful Thomas Wooldridge, Esq; Alderman of the Ward.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Deputy, Common-Council and Inhabitants of the Ward of Bridge, with Hearts impressed with the firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, beg Leave to return our sincere and grateful Thanks to your Majesty for your paternal Care, manifested in that immediate Attention which was paid to our Application, by affording us so timely and so effectual a Detachment of your Majesty's Forces, for the Preservation of our Persons, the great Property, and the Buildings of extensive Public Utility, which are within our Ward, from the violent and tumultuous Insurrections which have lately disturbed the Peace of your Majesty's these Subjects, and which threatened the entire Subversion of all Order in Society.

We beg Leave further to assure your Majesty, That it is our determined Resolution to unite in every Constitutional Measure to prevent and suppress any future Tumults, and to exert ourselves in supporting the Honour of your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown, and Dignity, and the inestimable Principles of our most excellent and happy Constitution.

Signed by Order of a Court of Wardmote,
John Towse, Ward Clerk.

Petersburgh, May 30. Letters were received Yesterday from her Imperial Majesty, dated Ostroff, at 100 Wersts beyond Plescow. She has abridged several Days of her Residence in some of the smallest Towns; and we flatter ourselves that, by this Means, her Imperial Majesty will return sooner than she originally proposed.

At a Time when FEVERS and COLDS, attended with SORE THROATS, particularly of the kind of Malignant Kind, are so very frequent and prove fatal to such Numbers, it is much to be lamented that an almost infallible Remedy for these reigning Disorders in particular, and Fevers in general, should ever be neglected to be given. They are innocent as Milk, and operate in the most gentle, easy Manner, and with a little Perseverance in taking them, will restore Health almost imperceptibly, which is well known to many of the Faculty in the first Practice, as well as the great Numbers who have happily experienced their Efficacy, and found Relief, after all other Means had been tried without Success, as may be seen in the

Essay on their Virtues,

With Letters and Certificates of the many extraordinary Cures they have done;

Which is given gratis where the Drops are sold, and earnestly recommended to the Perusal of the Public in general, but more especially to every one who may be inclined to take these Drops, and have the least Doubt of their Sovereign Efficacy.

Mr. Sawier, a Gentleman of Bristol, in a Letter to the Printer, published in the Gazette, in Recommendation of these Drops, after several Years Experience of their surprising Efficacy, and before he even knew Dr. Norris, declares them "The greatest Medical Blessing the World ever received."

The same Gentleman, in a Letter to Dr. Norris, on the Virtues and Efficacy of these Drops for Fevers, says, that in the Course of more than Seven Years, not one Instance came to his Knowledge of a Patient doing otherwise than well, who made a fair Trial of them.

They are sold at Dr. Norris's, in New Bridge-street, Blackfriars; and, by his Appointment, by Messrs. Fielding and Walker, Peter-noster-row; Mr. Ker, at the Carolina Coffee-house, Brechin-lane; Mr. Davenhill, No. 13, Cornhill; Mr. Keasly, No. 46, Fleet-street; Messrs. Byfield and Hawksworth, Charing-cross; Mr. Burnell, No. 133, New Bond-street; Mr. Sitwell, No. 4, Northumberland-street, Strand; and Mr. Southern, St. James's-street: Also by Messrs. Collins and Johnson, in Salisbury; and in most of the Principal Cities and Towns in the Kingdom, in Bottles at 2s. 6d. 5s. and 10s. 6d. each.

RICHARD WILLIAMS the Younger, of the Parish of St. Just in Penwith in the County of Cornwall, having assigned all his Effects to Messrs.
